War Memorial Fund Scholarship

Established in 1944, the Jaycee War Memorial Fund continues to make available scholarships for the educational training of young men and women. Ten (10) scholarships are awarded annually. Applicants must be United States citizens, possess academic potential and leadership qualities, and show financial need. The scholarship is a one-time award of $1,000 sent directly to the college or university of the recipient's choice. The award is to be applied as credit for tuition, books, laboratory fees, or other academic costs, and room and board when housed under control of the institution involved.

Thomas Wood Baldrige Scholarship

Thomas Wood Baldrige, a motion picture industry professional for 59 years, was also a highly accomplished Jaycee. Baldrige helped establish the first Jaycee chapters in Maryland and co-founded more than 20 Virginia chapters and more than 60 mid-Atlantic chapters. He was the first State President of the Virginia Junior Chamber and was eventually elected U.S. Junior Chamber National Vice President. He organized fundraising efforts to build the War Memorial Building in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and founded the War Memorial Trust, serving as Chairman until 1993.

One (1) scholarship is awarded annually to a Jaycee, immediate family member of a Jaycee, or a descendant of a former Jaycee, who is enrolled in or accepted for admission to a college or university. Applicant must be a United States citizen, possess academic potential and leadership qualities, and show financial need. The scholarship is a one-time award of $3,000 sent directly to the recipient's college or university of choice. The award is to be applied as credit for tuition, books, laboratory fees, or other academic costs, and room and board when housed under control of the institution involved.

Charles R. Ford Scholarship

Charles R. Ford, a former Oklahoma state Senator, continues to serve the Junior Chamber organization. Beginning on the chapter level, Ford then served as a Region Director, State President of the Oklahoma Junior Chamber, a U.S. Junior Chamber National Vice President and later International Vice President of the Junior Chamber International. He has served continuously since 1993 on the War Memorial Fund Board of Trustees.

One (1) scholarship is awarded annually to an active member of the Jaycees who wishes to return to a college or university to complete his or her formal education. Applicant must be a United States citizen, possess academic potential and leadership qualities, and show financial need. The scholarship is a one-time award of $2,500 sent directly to the recipient's college or university of choice.
